

Prof. Dr. Danny Busch holds the Chair for Financial Law and is the Director of the Institute for Financial Law at Radboud University of Nijmegen. He is a Research Fellow of Harris Manchester College and a Fellow of the Commercial Law Centre, University of Oxford. He is also Visiting Professor at Università degli Studi di Genova (2016/17, 2017/18, 2018/19), Visiting Professor at Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore di Milano (2016/17, 2017/18, 2018/19), and Visiting Professor at Université de Nice Côte d'Azur (2018/19).

After having graduated with highest honours in Dutch law from Utrecht University in 1997, he was awarded the degree of Magister Juris in European and Comparative Law by the University of Oxford (St. John's College) in 1998. From 1998 until 2001 he held the position of lecturer and researcher at the Molengraaff Institute of Private Law in Utrecht. In 2002 he defended his PhD in Utrecht (Indirect Representation in European Contract Law (Kluwer Law International 2005)). From 2002 until 2010 he was an attorney-at-law (advocaat) with the leading Dutch international law firm De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek in Amsterdam where he practised banking and securities law (both the private law and regulatory aspects).

He is extensively engaged in the provision of training to attorneys-at-law, financial regulators and financial professionals. He also is a Member of the Dutch Banking Disciplinary Committee (Tuchtcommissie Banken) and of the Appeal Committee Kifid (Klachteninstituut voor de financiële dienstverlening).
